North Scott Rotary Serves

NorScottarian's Once again manned the water stop for Eldridge Moonlight Chase 4 mile run.

Helpers were Glen & Jean Keppy & Caroline, Tricia Kane, Jody & Loren Rickard, Becky Bray, Mary Jane & Jim Middget, Jami & Joe Stutting

Gary and Patty Eckermnan plus two of their Grandchildren, Brooke and Ross. This was a very successful volunteer project at Eckermnan home.

(when we were done five volunteers went to another water stop to help)

Look what showed up from nowhere. Glen Keppy was greeted with the North Scott Rotary Charter when he arrived for our meeting. It is unknown where it has been, but seems safe. That is for now, thanks to a couple of pilferers who were thwarted trying to "take it to look at".

Glen now has possession of the charter and gave FAIR WARNING that no one had better try to get it out of his house.

THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

JEFF KAUFMANN TO SPEAK AT NORTH SCOTT ROTARY

This Friday we welcome Jeff Kaufmann, 51, of Tipton, to North Scott Rotary. He will talk about his role as chair of the Iowa Republican Party, which is working with numerous candidates for President of the United States who are criss-crossing Iowa ahead of our first-in-the-nation presidential caucuses.

Jeff is a former Iowa State Representative from 2005-2013, including six years in leadership positions in the GOP caucus and two years as Speaker Pro Tem. Prior to his legislative career, he was a Township Trustee and president of the Wilton School Board. He is a current member of the Cedar County Board of Supervisors.

Kaufmann is a seventh-generation livestock farmer. He is a department chair at Muscatine Community College, where he teaches history and government. Kaufmann has a 4.8 A+ score on ratemyprofessors.com. In 2012, he was honored as Iowa's faculty member of the year by the Iowa Association of Community College Trustees. He obtained his B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Iowa.

Jeff and his wife, Vicki, have been married for 29 years. They raised three sons: Bobby, a state representative in House District 73; Jacob, a University of Iowa student; and John, a University of Iowa student and chairman of the Iowa Federation of College Republicans.

During his tenure in the Iowa House, he served six years in leadership positions in the GOP caucus and two years as Speaker Pro Tem. He developed a record as a fiscal conservative, Second Amendment defender and a tireless advocate of property rights. He represented a competitive district and built a reputation as a consensus problem-solver and constituent advocate. During half of his time in the legislature, Democrats outnumbered Republicans in his district, and Kaufmann maintained working relationships across the aisle. He served eight years on the Ways and Means Committee, authored a key anti- eminent domain bill, and was instrumental in the formation of the Iowa Public Information Board.

As a member of the House leadership team, Kaufmann engaged in candidate recruitment, raised more than $500,000 for candidates and spoke at events across the state for more than 70 candidates. In 2010, Kaufmann was part of the campaign leadership team that helped elect 60 House Republicans to the chamber.

Cody Allen, Jeremy Kaiser, Josh Cobie:

Moonlight Chase (Beer stop)

"A little work, hung out a lot."

This was said about some, but probably applies to all.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – July 10, 2015 – Merle Anderson: What does the future of Agriculture Look Like?

Merle Anderson comes from a long line of farmers. Merle himself worked and managed Coop's for about thirty years. He has seen a lot of changes in the methods of farming, the seed that is planted and the machinery that is used. Ninety two percent of the land in Iowa is farm ground. An average American farmer feeds 155 people.

Fifty four attended on Friday, including Davenport Rotarians, Carl Zurborg and Ralph Heninger. Other guests were Marsha Rinetti, guest of Rich Horst, Chris Hoeger, guest of Bill Tubbs and Amber Martens, granddaughter of Dennis and Deb Peterson.

Steve Suiter gave $20 to thank Jerry Trimble for doing a wonderful job portraying Bernice at the Installation dinner. He wasn't real happy about Bernice sitting on his lap, but Steve was extremely happy he didn't have to fill the part!!

July Birthdays were celebrated.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
