THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

www.campcourageous.org

Camp Courageous is a year-round recreational and respite care facility for individuals with special needs near Monticello, Iowa. In the past 41-years it has grown from serving 211 campers in a summer time program in 1974, to over 7,000 campers in a year round program today. From 40-acres to 200-acres and from 5-buildings to 25-buildings. The camp provides opportunities for social and personal growth within a supportive environment. Campers learn to try a variety of creative and challenging activities and experience success. Campers develop enhanced self-esteem which carries over to work, home, or school environments. Charlie Becker came from the teaching profession to camp 35-years ago.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – November 6, 2015 – Caitlin Steimle & Ali Watkins; RYLA students

Paul Seelau gave a brief overview of the Rotary Leadership Conference that he attended as a chaperone last July. Attendees are 10th and 11th grade students from Districts 5970 and 6000. It is a six day intense camp type experience that becomes a very important life changing event for those who attend. It is held at Grinnell College. North Scott Rotary sponsored three girls last summer: Caitlin Steimle from Davenport Assumption and Ali Watkins and Allie Stutting from North Scott High School.

Caitlin and Ali spoke on Friday. They both had a wonderful, life changing experience. There are a lot of hugs, all week long. The students are put into small groups of 12-14 and spend all week working and playing together. They become like a "new" family. The motto of the camp was: "If it's meant to be, it's up to me."

Guests on Friday were: Rev. Ron Barnett, Carly Voltz and Rhonda Groh, guest of Brian Williams and owner of Eastern Iowa Bakery in Eldridge, also 6 junior Rotarians and 2 chaperones.

Patrick Olsen gave information about the auction, coming up in two weeks. Nathan Kessler drew the winning 50/50 ticket of Mike Auliff for $104. Jeff Ashcraft auctioned off the pies and goodies for a weekly HIGH total of $770.

Marcia Brandt made an announcement about her new job with the Genesis Foundation and donated $20. Loren Rickard announced a new grandbaby and gave $5. Patrick was the sergeant and collected $60.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
