A great service project
It was a cold day in October but warm hearts were everywhere. The joy of seeing these kids enjoying things many had never experienced. Although many children did not have adequate coats, the gloves and hats included in their package came in quite handy. Walking Taco's were served and all of the kids enjoyed their S'Mores, and pumpkins. Thanks to all who participated. Picture by Bill Tubbs

THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLGATE

Please Welcome District Governor Chris Knapp and his wife Vernetta

Chris was born in Ithaca, New York, moved to Iowa City and graduated from Iowa City West High. After graduating from Iowa State with a degree in history and teaching certification in social studies he was for a short period of time adviser to fraternities at the University of Iowa. In 2002, Chris earned his EMBA from the Tippie School of Management, University of Iowa.

In 1977, Chris began his banking career at First National Bank Iowa City, which subsequently became U.S. Bank N.A. During his banking career he advanced through Bank Club Director to Trust Officer.

Vernetta began her banking career in 1970 when she joined First National Bank Iowa City. Her career led her to Chicago, Louisville, Kentucky and back to Iowa City in 1980. Vernetta has taught banking supervision and management courses through Kirkwood Community College. Vernetta, a Rotarian since 2013, received the Rotarian Spouse/Partner Service Award from the Board of Directors of Rotary International for her service and commitment to Rotary Youth Exchange in District 6000.

Married in 1990, they have two sons, Thomas (34) and Andrew (32) both living in Iowa City. In 2013, Chris and Vernetta retired from U.S. Bank after a combined service of 77 years. They have hosted 8 exchange students.

Chris has been active in his community. He was president of Elder Services Agency of Johnson County and is currently treasurer of The Johnson County Historical Society. For over 20 years Chris has been an adjunct faculty member of Kirkwood Community College teaching banking, business and management courses.

A Rotarian for over 25 years, Chris is a charter member of the Rotary Club of Iowa City A.M., past treasurer and club president 2000-01. Chris has also been the Youth Exchange Counselor, club YEO, counselor to four Ambassadorial Scholars and the club's inbound GSE team liaison.

In 1991, Chris began his service at the district level. Asked by PDG Ken Noble, he joined the Youth Exchange Committee serving for 8 years as chair and served as Ken's district treasurer, 1995-96. Chris is currently a member of the district RYLA Committee. Chris is a member of the board of directors of SCRYE (South Central Rotary Youth Exchange) and has served on the SCRYE management committee. Chris is also involved with Rag4Clubfoot.

Chris and Vernetta are Paul Harris Society, Bequest Society and Major Donors. They have attended Rotary International Conventions in Buenos Aires, Chicago, Salt Lake City, New Orleans, Sao Paulo and Seoul, Korea. They also attended the 2013 Rotary Peace Conference in Honolulu. They look forward to attending many more conventions. Both he and Vernetta look forward to their year of service as they travel about the district visiting every club and meeting many more District 6000 Rotarians.

LAST WEEK

LAST WEEK – October 14, 2016 – Don Doxie: Iowa Baseball Greats

Don Doxie, sports reporter for the Quad City Times, loves baseball and the history that goes along with it. He has reported on nearly every sport that is played. Gene Baker, a Davenport High School graduate, is the reason Don wrote his book about Iowans who excelled in baseball. Gene was a scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates, when Don tried out for the team. Six out of sixteen Iowans in the book are members of the Hall of Fame.

Sixty two attended on Friday. Present were Davenport Rotarians, Sherry Ristau and Aaron Christopher. Other guests were: Jeff Martens, Jon Cole and Griffin Holden. Jeremy Kaiser gave a recap of the Harvest Party, held at the Pride of the Wapsi. 30 North Scott Rotarians volunteered, 228 kids from 9 agencies attended. The afternoon turned out a little chilly, but everyone had fun picking a pumpkin and eating s'mores.

Patrick told about the Q.C. area meeting, where 2000 meals were packed with "Kids against Hunger." The attendance overall was very poor; however North Scott was represented by 8 people. Pat also explained the importance to "reserve" your seat for the auction. It is already near a sell out!

John Maxwell sold this week's goodies for a total of $510. We were glad to see Eric Langan back with us, just in time for the auction. Bill Tubbs was the sergeant with a Cubs baseball trivia. He collected $102 in fines.
