THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLGATE

MaryBeth Myers, M.A.CCC-SLP

MaryBeth is a speech-language pathologist at Genesis Outpatient Pediatric Therapy Center in Bettendorf. She works with children from the toddler to teen years to help them improve their communication. She received her B.A. from Augustana College in Communication Disorders and Sciences and her M.A. from Northern Illinois University in Speech-Language Pathology. MaryBeth worked in the education area for 22 years, specializing in the birth to five year old population. She has worked at Genesis for 6 years full time and enjoys working with a variety of populations and has developed several groups for learning at Genesis. These groups include toddler language groups and social skills groups for young children, feeding groups and groups that incorporate skills for daily living for children with autism spectrum disorders. She serves on the concussion and brain injury team at Genesis. She volunteers for QC Live United among other local outreach programs and is active in the Quad Cities Speech-Language and Hearing Association. MaryBeth enjoys spending time with her family and making music with her sons. She is the mother of two sons, Kellen and Logan, both students at Augustana College. She and her husband Chris enjoy spending time outdoors together and following their son's musical and sports activities.

LAST WEEK

OCTOBER 26, 2018: DG TOM NARAK

Sixty-seven members and guests attended on Friday to welcome our current District Governor Tom Narak and his wife, Carol. They are members of the West Des Moines Rotary Club. Tom and Carol are retired educators and are very passionate about their three areas of focus. They encourage every Rotarian and all clubs to promote Literacy, prevent child abuse and continue to support the mission to end polio in the world. Tom complimented the club on the use of social media to promote club activities.

John Maxwell auctioned off this week's goodies for $510. Many thanks to ladies that donated this week: Annette Tank, Ann Suiter, Sheila Volrath, Deb Peterson and Marlene Bloomer (for Lorraine Lynch). The lucky buyers were: Eric Langan, Dennis Peterson, Paul Kalainoff, Merle Anderson, Jody Johnston-Mohr and Bill Tubbs.

Pat Olsen thanked everyone for donation of items for the auction and getting guests registered. The committee has a lot of work to do to get things logged, the program ready and numerous other details. Items will still be accepted, although they may not appear in the printed program.

Guests attending on Friday were; Frank Rodman from Kittery after hours club in Maine, Marlene Bloomer and Jeff Hughes, guests of Lorraine Lynch, Ryan Davis and Heather Wagner, guests of Jeremy Kaiser, and Abbi and Elsa, North Scott students. John Maxwell was the sergeant and collected $62.00 in fines.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
