North Scott Rotary Serves

From: Scott County Library System

Thank you for once again using the Scott County Library System's Youth Department as a way of honoring your speakers. This year's donation allowed us to purchase thirty-five books, including picture books, chapter books, early readers, board books, and nonfiction. These books will enrich our collections for children of all ages and I know that our young patrons and their families will greatly enjoy these new titles.

We have placed a name plate in each book to honor individual speakers. The books will be available at our Eldridge branch within the next few weeks. Please find an enclosed list of the titles that we were able to purchase. Thank you once-again for your generosity!

Best wishes,
Emily Arnold

George Ryan, I-74 Corridor Manager, Building a Bridge for the Future: I-74 Mississippi River Bridge Project

The I-74 Mississippi River Bridge project is part of a regional strategy to improve the I-74 corridor and access across the Mississippi River in the Quad Cities. George Ryan, I-74 Corridor Manager with Wood Environment and Infrastructure Solutions, will discuss the planning and construction of this important bi-state project.

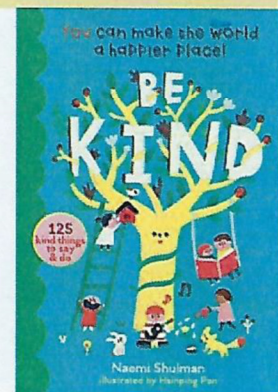

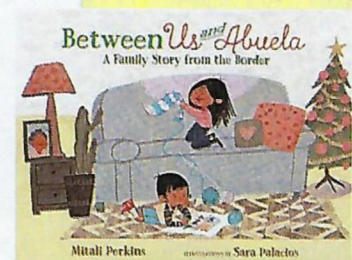

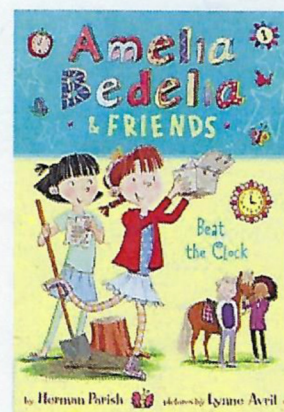

Professional background:

George Ryan is the Corridor Manager for the $1.2 billion construction of the new river bridges and reconstruction of Interstate 74 in Bettendorf, Iowa and Moline, Illinois. Prior to joining Wood Environment and Infrastructure Solutions, he performed multiple roles for the Illinois Department of Transportation during a 34-year career. His expertise includes facilitating communication and cooperation in the design, construction, and maintenance areas while achieving and $500 million reconstruction of Interstate 74 through downtown Peoria, Illinois. preserving the best highway system possible within available resources. He has been involved primary design, design and construction of numerous major projects. One such example was overseeing all phases of the largest down state roadway reconstruction ever undertaken in Illinois, the $500 million reconstruction of Interstate 74 through downtown Peoria, Illinois.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING - October 11, 2019 – Congressman Dave Loebsack

Sixty-four attended on Friday with several guests present. Duncan Cameron from Naples, FL Rotary, Lucas Dengler guest of Josie Seymour, Jimmy Holt guest of Brad Burt, Dwayne Anderson guest of Rev. Rich Pokora and North Scott Students Emma Hughes and Kylie McCane.

Josie Seymour announced that the Shoptoberfest 50/50 drawing in LeCLaire netted $502 for the club. Jeremy Kaiser thanked all the helpers at the Harvest Party on Wednesday. Attending were 240 students from 9 agencies, with 26 volunteers from North Scott Rotary and 14 volunteers from Davenport Rotary. It was a beautiful day at the Pride of the Wapsi. John Maxwell auctioned off the goodies for the week. A peach pie baked by Linda Paustain was purchased by Chris Connolly for $150. Pat DeLuca purchased the Scotchie bars made by Dennis Peterson for $125. Kelly Meyer was the sergeant and collected $51 in fines.

Dave Loebsack was glad to be back at NSR. He will have completed seven terms and will be 68 years old when he finishes his term in 2020. He was glad to NOT be asking for votes or money. Two big items that Dave continues to work on is Veterans issues and the need for good maps and broad band in rural Iowa. He also is working on the drug price bill.

Dave said that he remains optimistic about the Trump impeachment issue. Nothing fun or gleeful is going on, it is a sad time for the country. Dave taught at a college for 24 years, will have served in congress for 14 years and intends to do something after retirement. He is just not sure what.
