Brandon Beasley Beasley's Boxing Club

The Beasley's Boxing Club is dedicated to educating kids and youth in our community with qualified volunteer staff and peers, who act as mentors on the mental and physical benefits of boxing. The sport and science of boxing is offered as an alternative to negative behavior and energy often found with idle time on the inner-city streets. Beasley's Boxing Club provides a positive setting where sometimes troubled kids and youth are developed into productive men and women of the community. It is the goal of Beasley's Boxing Club to turn the passion of the sport into a positive learning experience students can utilize for the rest of their lives. We adhere to a code which consists of the importance of respect, honor, dignity and courage.

There are no paid positions at the gym. Everyone is a volunteer. Gift contributions allow total access for training, conditioning, and consulting services available as well as organized competition assistance.

New Member of North Scott Rotary

On December 6, Past President, Jeff Ashcraft inducted three new members. Joining us are:

Sara Diericx is the Marketing Manager for Mid America Basement Systems. She resides in Park View, Iowa with her husband, Dylan and is a graduate of the University of Northern Iowa. She has many talents including photography, event planning, musical theater, being a great AUNT and creating stainless steel tumblers to sell in her spare time. Sara is sponsored by Brian Williams.

Rick Engler is a Project Superintendent with Bush Construction and a retired plumber with Local 25, and Northwest Mechanical. He resides in Eldridge, with his wife, Pennie, a retired banker. He is a past president of the North Scott Boosters Club and enjoys hunting and building trucks. Rick is sponsored by Tom Messer.

Lucas Dengler is a Financial Advisor with Modern Woodmen of America. He resides in Davenport and is very familiar with Rotary, as his Mom was president of Davenport Rotary last year. He is active in community service projects with his job, John Deere Classic and Isabel Bloom projects where his girlfriend, Emma, is employed as a Production Designer. Lucas is sponsored by Josie Seymour.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING - December 6, 2019 – Dr. Chris Peters – Better Angels Iowa

Sixty-five attended on Friday, including Naples Rotarian, Duncan Cameron and guests Katie Hoyt, guest of Scott Case, Brad Nielsen, guest of Josie Seymour and John Nelson, guest of Rev. Rich Pokora.

Three new members were installed (see front page), and December birthdays were celebrated. Patrick Olsen presided over the meeting and announced that the approximate numbers for the auction are $110,000 gross and $85,000 net. The final numbers are not in and this could change by a few dollars. He thanked everyone for their support and said the event was a success.

Kathy Pezley asked if anyone had a Hawaiian style shirt that they were getting rid of, she would take it for a Veterans event in March. Jan Touney told of an Ugly Sweater contest for Friday, December 13 at the Junior High for her Interact Club. She wishes to carry the contest to the club also, as her students are raising money to send to the orphanage in Uganda.

Dr. Christopher Peters from Coralville, a semi-retired Cardiovascular surgeon and former political candidate was our speaker. He is the Iowa volunteer coordinator for Better Angels. The group is a national organization which seeks to reduce political polarization and promote civil dialogue. The group has a lot of college age student involvement. Workshops are available to attend to learn how to enjoy politics and appreciate courteous behavior. For more information visit: BetterAngelsIowa.org.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
