THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

North Scott Rotary Grants

Come and participate in what your Rotary Efforts have helped achieve. Starting this week we will have five of the grant recipients present to receive their checks, and tell a little about their projects.

This year the Community Needs Committee had request from 110 worthy organizations.

The Impact Grant had 10 applications.

The committees had a hard job, but chose many worthwhile recipients to support, and you to get to know.

Carolyn Scheibe (l) and Charlie Jones (r) presented $2,000 Rotary scholarships to (l-r): Carter Josund (Davenport North), Esmee Belzer (Davenport North), and Keaton Rheingans, Alannah Skinner, Colin Wiersma and Katharine Jackovich (all North Scott). Kraig Leahy of North Scott (not pictured) is the recipient of the Dorothy White Performing Arts Scholarship.

North Scott Rotary Interact Club of North Scott Junior High

The North Scott Junior High Interact Club, sponsored by North Scott Rotary is led by our member, Jan Touney. She does a great job engaging the students with worthwhile projects and information on activities that the club does. At the current time (4th quarter) she has 22 members that attend the Friday morning meetings. Nineteen of the members attended NSR on Friday and were awarded certificates of completion. Eugene Kreiter is the Junior High support person for Jan and Ann Green from the ISU Extension office has helped Jan with several social interaction programs.

The students helped build one of the trikes that was the Community Service project of President Jeff Ashcraft and had an ugly sweater and hat day to raise funds for the GMOC orphanage in Uganda. The students want the children to have a TV and video player in their classroom so that they can view educational videos. They are currently selling candy bars to complete this need.
