THIS FRIDAY: At the Steeplegate, with Zoom option

Report from travelers to Uganda

Seven members of North Scott Rotary and Doug Peterson of Iowa Quad Cities Rotary traveled to Kisoro, Uganda, June 18-30 to meet the children and connect with our international project partners at the Imbabaze Centre for Women and Children, a project of North Scott Rotary with support from The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International. Fifty-seven orphans and vulnerable children there are sponsored by Rotarians (see list, p. 7). Sara Somsky and Doug Peterson will be presenting Friday about this extraordinary project on behalf of travelers Merle Anderson, Jeff and Crista Ashcraft, Pat DeLuca, Dick Cole, and Bill Tubbs.

SEPT. 22: CLUB ASSEMBLY

A day to brainstorm about the future

By Bill Tubbs/Volunteer Editor

Sept. 22, 2023: It was a day for enjoying the present and looking to the future, as 62 Rotarians and two guests brainstormed ideas for service projects. Tradition continued, with piano music by Tewanta Lopez and Jeff Ashcraft leading singing of "America the Beautiful," "Welcome Song" and "R-O-T-A-R-Y." Deanna Jensen-Valliere gave a reflection about Rotary district, zone and international, 50 years of North Scott Rotary, and today's Club Assembly where all ideas are welcome. Service Above Self and the Four-Way Test are our guide. "Create Hope in the World." Tony Knobbe introduced Visiting Rotarians and guests: Duncan Cameron (Rotary Club of Naples, FL), and Laura Williams (guest of Rita Rawson). Tony asked everyone to "bark" in unison to greet Gracie ("Arf! Arf!"). Steve Suiter and Tiffany Lensch joined by Zoom.

Announcements:

President Tracy Lindaman asked for a Golf Outing report. Tyler Bindrum was succinct. "It was a great day."

Dictionaries: John Maxwell invited members to join in presenting Student Dictionaries to 4th-graders in the North Scott district on Wednesday, Sept. 27 (the schedule is the first item in the calendar in this newsletter). "It's a real rewarding time." 264 students will receive a dictionary.

Friendly Friday: Theresa White invited members to welcome students at North Scott Junior High the fourth Friday of the month at 7:20 a.m., starting Sept. 29.

Parade: Danielle Hines is organizing a Rotary unit for the North Scott Homecoming Parade. Lineup will be at 4:30 p.m. behind the high school.

Harvest Party: President Tracy called attention to the annual Youth Harvest Party, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 11, at Pride of the Wapsi, 14600 305th St., Long Grove. She said there will be one shift, from 4-6 p.m. Children from after-school programs will experience a taste of the country.

Alzheimer's Walk will be Saturday, Oct. 7, 9 a.m. at Vibrant Arena. Erica Schroeder-Cerda said the shirt deadline has passed, but you can still walk and donate. (See link for registration in the calendar on page 2.) Erica will be one of the presenters, about the Walk to End Alzheimer's, at Bettendorf Rotary Sept. 27.

Walk for Freedom: One week later, Rotary District 6420 invites us join the "Walk for Freedom" across the I-74 Bridge to raise funds and create awareness of Human Trafficking Prevention. Deanna Jensen-Valliere said the link for registration is in the calendar of The NorScottarian.

Foundation: President Tracy asked us to join Rotarians from neighboring clubs and District 6000 for the Rotary Foundation Social, Tuesday, Oct. 17, at Crawford Brew, 3659 Devils Glen Road, Bettendorf, from 5:30-7:00 p.m. (See flyer on page 6.)

Polio: President Tracy called attention to the flyer for the World Polio Day Celebration, Monday, Oct. 23, on the tables (see p. 8). The event will be at the Quad City Botanical Center with social hour at 5:30, dinner at 6:30 and a presentation by Rotarians PDG John Ockenfels and Peter Teahan and their recently-completed Flight to End Polio. This was an extraordinary undertaking in support of Rotary's No. 1 priority, the global eradication of polio. We are hoping North Scott Rotary will be well represented!

Auction: Pat Olsen gave a pep talk for the Nov. 17 Auction, at Rhythm City Casino. A new package for sale, from Lori Rochau, is a 1-week vacation for six at the Rochau's house in St. Croix! Thank you, Rochaus! Pat urged us to find items for sale, and to invite guests and turn in registrations. He gave a shout out to the sponsors who have pledged $35,000 – a record! More are welcome. Contact Pat or Nate Kessler.

Personals

Sheila Volrath, glad to be here, was happy to give $1 for each week she has missed.

Deanna Jensen-Valliere said something about her husband, John, being a Hawk fan and the University of Michigan band.

Bill Tubbs observed that our founding members pictured in the newsletter, who met 50 years ago yesterday (Sept. 21), were men in leadership positions and wore suits and ties. All except perhaps four are deceased. Bill is a survivor, but will have open-heart surgery later this year, probably at University of Wisconsin Hospitals and Clinics. Prayers please.

Sara Tomasson will be directing Countryside Community Theatre's "Charlie Brown Christmas." Auditions are Oct. 7-8 at Lincoln Center, 7th and Iowa streets in Davenport.

Matt Rus is happy to be a father, but, "Boy, she has a set of lungs!" he said of Jayna, who was pictured in last week's Nor'Scottarian. Congratuations, Matt!

Rita Rawson is raising funds for Dress for Success, Nov. 1 at the Waterfront Center, Bettendorf. Dress for Success provides business attire and helps individuals prepare for interviews.

Sergeant-at-arms Nate Kessler raised $71 with fun fines, including a remark by Deb Peterson, Scott Case's shoes, Ken Rohwedder's ServPro ads, Danielle Hines' vacation to Utah, Tony Knobbe's dog-barking stunt, Bill Tubbs for no women golf outing pictures, $1 for early leavers and $1 for beer-drinking golfers.

Program

President Tracy Lindaman divided the membership into six groups to brainstorm about a future service project(s), using the questions in last week's newsletter. The groups were facilitated by Nate Kessler, Sara Tomasson, Deanna Jensen-Valliere, Tony Knobbe, Sara Somske and Greg Schaapveld (photos, p. 5).

SEPT. 22: DISCUSSION GROUPSCLUB ASSEMBLY

Dear Rotarians: I was excited to see a great turn out for the Club Assembly! It's clear that you all care deeply about our club and have amazing ideas. I will be sending out the questions in the survey specifically for the members that weren't in attendance, but also for anyone that has more to share. I will be sharing the results in the next few weeks. Definitely before the auction so we can present our idea at the event. Have a great day,
 – Tracy Lindaman

'Your trip will forever live in our hearts'

Dear Rotarians,

After yesterday's (Sept. 17) program I feel inspired to write to you to congratulate you for organizing such a wonderful program about your June trip to Uganda-Kisoro. I bet the audience who attended in person and those via Zoom enjoyed the program as much as I did. It was a mixture of sadness and laughter as each one of you gave their presentations, that clearly gave a picture of what ICWAC is, in terms of participants supported, geographical and cultural context that we work in and many more.

Merle mentioned that the program will be shared with those interested to 'spread the word' about ICWAC. Let me know if I should share with you the email address of previous farmer-to-farmer volunteers from IOWA who would love to learn more about our work and probably support to cast the net further for potential sponsors and partners.

Your trip to Uganda, and specifically to Kisoro, will forever remain in our hearts. May God Almighty grant all us and our families good health, wisdom and might to enable us to keep serving HIS people. We look forward to hosting you again in Uganda in the near future. With God everything is possible. It is possible that all eight of you can return to Uganda.

God bless you,
Robbinah and Lydia
