The good news
by Art Harrington

Everyone gets to participate!

That's the good news from the Barbeque Ramrod, Frank Hart.

Frank e-mailed club members this week copies of the work schedules and assignments. Open your e-mail and check to see when and where you are expected to be to pull your shifts.

It looks like we have a good variety of individuals and groups who will be performing on the outdoor stage, beginning Saturday morning at 10:00, and wrapping up with the "Fire @ Will Band" that comes on at 3:45.

Dan Oehler and his crew will be loading the fire pits on Thursday evening, and will be lighting them around 5:45 on Friday morning. The fire department has been advised of our schedule, and is expected to make their annual trek across the street to check us out.

The Burro BBQ Meat Prep gets underway Friday morning downstairs in the kitchen at the Chamber building. Somebody said 9:00 a.m. at Thursday's meeting, but it appears that Boss Frank is cracking the whip and pushing for an earlier 8:00 start, according to his e-mailed memo.

If you've never been in on the cutting, seasoning and wrapping operation that precedes hauling the burlap-wrapped beef over to the pre-fired pits, it's an impressive operation that is worth experiencing - at least once in your life. You begin to understand why that barbequed meat is the best to be found anywhere when it is lifted out of those pits and served to the eager crowds on Saturday!

It's burro time!

Touting the Burro tradition

Thanks to Dave Moore for his informative and entertaining conclusion to his presentation of The Big Picture (on the little screen), giving us an enlightened overview of BC Rotary's great Burro BBQ tradition.

We also appreciated at last week's meeting Bob Schoen's expanded Rotary Minute, recalling the great 1970 Burro barbecue.

Calling all golfers!
by Art Harrington

Annual BBQ Golf Tourney is Friday

Assemble at 4:00, and be prepared to tee-off at 4:30, according to John McCormick.

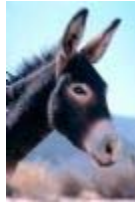

The Burro Barbecue Golf Tournament is being held, as usual, at the Chaparral Golf Course this Friday, April 18. While our clubs work together on some joint service projects, such as the recent Kinder College, the golf tournament has been the main fellowship event that brings Rotarians and Kiwanians in Bullhead City together each year just for fun and fellowship.

The tab is $20 per player. Ten bucks goes toward the golf expenses, with the other $10 going into the pot. You won't want to miss the great hamburger barbecue that always follows the golf. That's an additional $5.

Everyone is welcome to participate! Call John for details and answers to any questions.

Great job, Paul!

2008 Burro Sheet is here!

WOW!! Did you see that special 64-page Burro Sheet insert in the Daily News on Tuesday this week? Now that was impressive!

This year's edition is filled with all kinds of corny humor, trivia, little-known facts, historical notes, abundant information about Rotary - and lots of ads! There's even information on how you can adopt a burro, if you want.

The schedule of featured entertainment at this year's barbeque can be found on page 4 of the Burro Sheet.

Paul Stubler deserves an enormous pat on the back for producing this year's outstanding Burro Sheet, along with all who helped sell the ads that make it possible.

More about district conference

by Art Harrington

District conference rapidly approaching

To be held May 30 - June 1 at the Pointe Hilton Tapatio Cliffs Resort, this year's District Conference boasts great accommodations, outstanding speakers and features to interest everyone.

The luxurious rooms at the Pointe Hilton will be just $99 - if you reserve your room at that special Rotary rate by May 5th.

If you enjoy golf, plan to be there for the Conference Golf Tournament on Friday morning. You will find the beautiful Pointe Tapatio course to be challenging. Green fees are $80. Tee times range from 6:21 - 7:30 a.m. For more information, contact Gus Miller (602-740-1872) or Andy Pulsipher (602-264-1500).

Got questions? Contact Sara Jane Feldman for answers at 623-561-6219 or e-mail her: sarajfeldman@cox.net.

To obtain that special room rate of $99: Call 800-947-9784 by May 5th.

2008 Rotary International Convention

by Art Harrington

The Rotary world assembles in LA

Rotarians from all around the world will be coming together to participate in the RI Convention in Los Angeles, June 15-18.

Will you be there? This may be your closest and best opportunity ever to experience an incredible international convention of Rotary. There is simply nothing else like it in all the world!

The convention offers a great way to network with fellow Rotarians, representing the more than 160 countries of Rotary, and to find out about the interesting and amazing things other Rotary clubs are accomplishing around the world.

Discussion workshop sessions will be offered Monday through Wednesday in Los Angeles. You can learn more about how the Club Leadership Plan is being used and is working in other clubs, how to be the best possible club leader, and can come to learn so much more about our Rotary Foundation and its many different programs. You can also learn about the Family of Rotary, water management, literacy and health & hunger initiatives.

It will all be a part of the LA Convention - along with spectacular general sessions and the incomparable House of Friendship. That alone is worth the trip to LA to experience!
