BURRO BBQ is this weekend

Every member is needed this Friday & Saturday

After all of the planning and preparations, we are ready to ignite the fire in the pit, season and wrap 1400 pounds of beef and lower the bundles down onto the coals. When it's done, the best pit-barbecued beef in the Southwest will be served this Saturday.

If you don't have a specific job assigned yet, give Shirin McGraham a call to determine where she needs the most help. Help is needed with the final preparations on Friday, as well as with the operation and cleanup on Saturday.

Fantastic children's and family activities, along with outstanding entertainment, will be awaiting all who turn out this Saturday.

Ticket money needs to be turned in Turn in to Sharon the money for the BBQ tickets you have sold so far at this Thursday's club meeting.

Sharon also has additional tickets if you need more.

Rotary/Kiwanis tourney is Friday

The annual Rotary/Kiwanis Golf Tournament will be held at Chaparral Country Club on Friday, April 20th, kicking off our Burro Barbecue weekend.

Assemble at 4:00 pm, to prepare for a shotgun style tee off at 4:30. A BBQ follows on the patio. The entry fee is only $20 -- $10 for golf and $10 for prizes. There is a $5 charge for the food.

Where are the registrations?

by Art Harrington

Bullhead City only has 6 officially registered so far

According to the District Conference Registrar, while we may have a lot of our members who are planning to attend the conference, only six members & spouses have actually registered so far.

It's time to get it in gear! The cost for the District Conference package at Little America in Flagstaff is still $180 per person -- but only until the end of this month.

The price goes up to $190 per person on May 1st.

Shakespeare Festival in Utah

by Kelly Burgess

An entertaining thought

What is life without a little play? Without the laughter of an uproarious comedy, the thoughtfulness of a great drama, the melodies of a classic musical?

Come join us for the world premier of "Lend Me A Tenor - The Musical", at the Shakespeare Festival in Cedar City, Utah.

SYNOPSIS - The orchestra is warming up, the cast is abuzz, the curtain will soon rise - but wait! Where is the world-renowned lead tenor? Thus begins the Festival's high-spirited and farcical world premiere based on Ken Ludwig's award-winning play. The show must go on, but how! The answer sets the pace in this giddy screwball comedy of mistaken identity, hysterical plot twists, and rollicking confusion.

Event price is tentative pending lodging details. Ticket prices are $42.00/person. We must have confirmation and $$$ by April 27th to make lodging arrangements.

Register for event by clicking here.

A message from the Conference Committee

Attention District Conference Attendees!

We are collecting small soaps, shampoos, lotions and such at District Conference. These would be small like hotel or motel size.

The items collected will be given out to needy women and men during our next Polio Inoculation trip to Caborca, Mexico, February 2008.

We will have a large basket where you can deposit your donations.

Please join in and help us with this simple project that will bring joy to so many.

Bring your soaps, shampoos, lotions and potions to the District Conference, May 18-20, 2007.

If you have not registered for the conference please sign up now and you even will save $10.00 per person before April 30th.

This is going to be a FANTASTIC and EXCITING Conference.

Thanks and best regards in Rotary,

Your District Conference Committee

RI Board recommends
by Art Harrington

A new position for clubs

At its November 2006 meeting, the RI Board recommended that club presidents appoint a Club Trainer to help clubs meet their training needs.

It has been suggested that Club Trainers be responsible for

- Providing training sessions for all members of the club in coordination with the club president

- Conducting training for all present and incoming board officers in coordination with the incoming club president
- Providing training to new members about the club, RI, and The Rotary Foundation in coordination with the membership committee
