ROTARY ROOM*by Art HarringtonInteract Mural Completed*for Soft Interview Room for Children at BCPD

The Interact mural painted on the wall of the new Soft Interview Room for Children at the Bullhead City Police Department was completed just in time for the recent dedication of that room.

The badly-needed Soft Interview Room to work with traumatized children in domestic violence and other cases was undertaken as a joint project between the Bullhead City Rotary Club and our Mohave High School Interact Club. The Rotary Club provided funds to equip and furnish what was actually two rooms at the police station, and did the painting of the rooms. The Interact Club collected toys and stuffed animals for the room and painted a zoo animals mural on one of the walls.

While other Interact members helped with the mural, Nicole Smith chaired the project; and she, assisted by Raphael Pelegrino, did the majority of the painting of the mural.
