ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Eric Moss reminded everyone of the G4G wrap up party at his home (4763 Sharpshooter Way, Prescott). Appetizer and dessert contributions are welcome.
- Danny Machado reminded everyone to sign up for the Holiday Dinner on Dec. 15th at 5:30 PM. The deadline to sign up is Dec. 1st.
- Ken Caplin thanked everyone that has participated in the Foundation Match donation program. He reminded everyone of the Rotary 101 webinar that provides a comprehensive introduction to the RI Foundation.
- Mike Payson sadly reported that there were no Rotarian participants in the recent Veterans Day Parade. Our veteran members are invited to participate in the Christmas Day Parade on Saturday, Dec. 4th beginning at 1 PM. He also shared that the club will participate in the Salvation Army bell ringing program at the Gail Gardner Walmart and True Value Hardware stores on Dec. 4th, 11th and 18th from 2 to 6 PM. Interested club members may also participate in the Wreaths Across America program on Sat, Dec. 18th beginning at 10 AM. Mike shared that he was contacted by an individual interested in renting a Prescott area property.
- Wendi Lancy presented a framed thank you poster signed by the Mt. View Nursing Home staff. Our club membership will have another opportunity to sing Christmas carols, share gifts and visit with Mt. View Nursing Home senior residents.

PRESENTATION: Mike Kimmel & Becky Mitchell; Agape House of Prescott
Mike Kimmel is the Agape House Executive Director. Mike has served for 25 years in organizations that help homeless individuals rebuild, transform and become self sufficient members of society. Mike also has 37 years of computer engineering team management experience for large corporations.

Becky Mitchell is the Agape House Administrative Director. Becky graduated from Mount Vernon Nazarene University with a double major in Business Administration and Sociology Community Development. Following graduation, she has served in diverse inner-city and transitional housing programs that support youth and homeless populations. Mike & Becky shared that the focus of the Agape House program is to help transform homeless families into functional members of society. By "fixing little things" parents are able to break cycles of failure often a result of domestic violence and addiction. Agape House programs begin with the provision of a safe, yet structured, environment. Their mentoring programs include financial and parental counseling that aids to rebuild lives through a focus on education and employment preparation. Agape House partners with local businesses and individuals, often retired teachers and counselors, to provide critical life skills and mentoring services

SGT-AT-ARMS: Linda Crogan presented a plethora of historic and academic questions related to the Thanksgiving holiday. Luckily for those that were paying attention, the questions were easily answered from the cheat sheet Linda distributed to each table.
