Summary: Paws of War is a nonprofit organization that provides service to veterans and first responders. They rescue dogs and cats for troops serving overseas. They bring independence to our U.S. military veterans, who suffer from war's psychological and physical repercussions. They train, shelter, and place support dogs to serve and provide happiness to our U.S. military veterans. Their accomplishments included bringing home over 300 dogs and cats rescued by our troops serving overseas. For more information, please visit their website at Paws of War
