GUEST SPEAKER- Joe Perino

Topic: Joe & Diane's recent trip to the Pacific Northwest aboard the American Cruise Line

Joe delivered an interesting talk tracing a portion of the itinerary Lewis and Clark traveled during the early 1800s. They traveled with Sacagawea, a Native American woman , who acted as an interpreter while on their travels. Sacagawea, with her knowledge of the Shoshone language proved to be a valuable asset to the expedition. Joe and Diane had a great time!
