GUEST SPEAKER: George Munkenbeck, Islip Town Historian

George was very informative concerning historical events of the Township of Islip. He discussed the Living History Day, the Civil War Weekend and touring St. John's Church in Oakdale. The main topic of his talk was concerning Percy G. Williams (1857-1923). Mr. Williams was a traveling medicine salesman, real estate investor, amusement park operator and vaudeville theater owner and manager. At his death, he endowed his Long Island house located in East Islip, as a retirement home for the aged and destitute actors.
