Guest Speaker: VFW Commander Sabrina Lacy, Brentwood Veterans of Foreign Wars,

Topic: "Taking Care of the People in Your Community-Suffolk County

Summary: Sabrina shared her insights from her career and how to motivate our young people to feel safe. Her military experience and educational experience at St. Joseph's College played an important part in her journey. Donate your money to the organizations that support Veterans, not the people on the street. Amvets 18 and VFW will help these people if they need help. Encouraged us to support VFW and AMVETS. Protect your community and do your part then we will have "community". She asked us to pass this along: "A leader is not a leader because he has money, a leader is not a leader because he has people following, a leader is a leader because he does stuff that no one else sees but the person up above!"
