SERVICE ABOVE SELF

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Eric Flasher announced the Rotary social event will be Saturday, March 16, 6:30 p.m. at Star City Brewery.

Miamisburgopoly – using a blend of Australian footy dice rules with traditional cutthroat monopoly side deals.

Keith Basinger pulled some past president executive mumbo jumbo and had three whole tables fined in retribution for his table being scrutinized for professional overload of some sort. His tactic will be an agenda item at the next board meeting.

A: The kind of person who wants to eradicate Polio.

Program

Vice president Bill Skudlarek introduced Judy Wuerstl (President) and Carolyn Kilpatrick (Historian) from the Miamisburg Monday Night Club as program presenters.

This historical club was formed in 1883 by seven women who were teachers in Miamisburg. The club meets every other Monday of the month.

These studious women who created the club studied the works of William Shakespeare and met every Monday to share their enthusiasm for learning.

They were the driving force for the city getting its first library with support from the Carnegie Foundation.

The club now has 22 active members and 17 associate members. Their meetings are hosted in member's homes depending who is presenting the program.

2018-2019 the club is celebrating 125 years in existence. The club can proudly say they are the oldest literary club in Montgomery County.

While the study topics have diversified from solely Shakespeare, the club has also acted as catalysts for other history and community sharing. Most recently they organized and facilitated the Bicentennial Women's Day activities with notable success.

Prize Winners
 Bob Faulkner and Jered Still
