HAPPY DOLLARS& FINES

Bill Hogan had a happy dollar for his mother's 80th birthday!

Ted Fink had a happy dollar, well for, being happy.

Bill Skudlarek was happy that everyone was saving up money for the Auction.

Eric Cluxton had a happy dollar for seeing Ted Fink's doppelganger.

Paul Schultz was happy he figured out to get his belt o his pants without the use of his shoulder.

Dr. Brent was happy that Dr. Jen found a presentation box for their Rotary Auction item.

Jim DeYoung had a happy dollar in anticipation of his son's arrival from Switzerland.

Kelsey Whipp had a happy dollar in anticipation of Opening Day of Little League Baseball, the first pitch will be thrown out by Mayor Church.

Tom Nicholas had a Trump Dollar, saying his research indicates that Trump handicap may been less than we thought due to the use of the presidential foot wedge.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships. The test has been translated into more than 100 languages, and Rotarians recite it at club meetings:

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
