ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jeff Nestor – Baum Opera House Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser – April 5. Be there.

Mandy Askins – Mound Cold War Museum lecture series continues. Check it out.

Dave Vail – announced MHS Band Fish Fry, Guard Ensemble performances.

Doug Talmage - Membership Madness still going strong. The Brewers team in the lead with 6 points, with the Doctors and Recruiters tied with 1 point each. Keep it going. Great Paul Harris Fellow points at stake.

Brian Yeakley - Rotary Auction items list passed around. April 27. Tell Brian what item you are providing for bidding. “Buy, sell or trade but don’t you dare miss it.”

Rich Gulling - Rotary Youth Exchange (RYE) looking for three families in the Miamisburg School district willing to host a high school student for three months each. Spread the word. The club has sponsored students in the past and the experience builds good will and better friendship.

Happy Dollars

Eric Flasher fined for arriving late and not selling prize tickets. He gave a happy birthday dollar for his wife.

Kelsey Whipp was happy that her daughter's Destination Imagination coach was at the meeting.

Brian Yeakley gave $5 Scooter and for his name appearing in the DDN.

Wally Sackett gave some happy/sad dollars. He is happy to receive a promotion to President of Kettering Medical Center System. He is sad that he will be changing clubs. He said while Rotary in general is worthwhile, Miamisburg Rotary is a great place to be a member.

Al Scott was $5 happy that after post op cataract surgery issues, he now has an end in sight. He announced that on March 9 he became engaged to Paula. (Congrats, Al). He also is looking forward to a Batavia Trap Shoot and his upcoming hunting trip to Canada. Then Al was fined for his phone ringing and had to spin the Wheel of Doom - $1.

Clair (without the E) Miller asked if Al's fiancé Paula had ever met Al in person.

Happy Dollars

Keith Basinger was happy and sad. The weather was sunny on his recent trip to Florida. He also had a happy birthday dollar. But sad that his father recently passed away.

Jan Runkle had a great trip to sunny California and was able to visit grandkids.

Bill Skudlarek gave $3 because Terri was joining him for lunch. The DI state tournament is coming up and two of the coaches were his guests at lunch.

Rich Gulling said he almost forgot the Four Way Speech Contest but remembered just in time. He also had a birthday.

Ted Fink had $5 happiness. His son turned 44 years old. Also, Ted and his wife were fortunate to hear Dr. Temple Grandin, PhD. An extraordinary advocate for people with Autism. She is autistic and she obtained her advanced degree in animal behavior sciences. She revolutionized the design of livestock movement at major slaughterhouses.

Jeff gave $ for his name being in the paper.

Barry Barnhart have a happy memory dollar for his 1975 life changing adventure to boot camp. Ahh, sweet memories of youth.

Ron was happy about something.
