ANNOUNCEMENTS

President Jeff Nestor started off his Rotary Presidential year with three important announcements.

- The Pancake Day grills and equipment needs to find a new storage home. Please help find a suitable spot.
- The Thunderburg motorcycle cruise is happening next month. Fun time.
- Farmers and Merchants River Blast is the first Saturday in September from 6-9 p.m. Hope to see all Miamisburg Rotarians participating.

Doug Barry was collecting signatures to place a tax issue on the Fall ballot.

Trivia: Dick Church asked...

Question: How many people attending all of the Bicentennial week activities and events combined?

Answer: Approximately 16,000. That's an average of 2K per day over eight days!

Program

President Elect Bill Skudlarek called upon Past President (2009-10) Al Scott for the program. Al explained that his idea was to profile three members of the club who have established over 113 years of perfect attendance at Rotary.

With some prompting from Al, they answered a few questions about themselves and their longevity as members.

Three great minds with plenty to share. Don't hesitate to ask for advice from these fine men.

HAPPY DOLLARS & FINES

Rich Gulling was happy to have family arriving in town for a big family reunion.

Bob Adams was $2 happy that to celebrate their 26th wedding anniversary in September, his wife surprised him with tickets to see Billy Joel at Madison Square Gardens. Nice.

Jan Runkle was happy about her recent visit to Los Angeles and for her upcoming trip to Alaska.

Angie Engelke was sad to be missing next week's meeting but happy that her baby girl is turning 16.

Keith Basinger gave a happy dollar for being crutch less and a scooter dollar.

Doug Barry paid a self-imposed fine for his signature collecting and a happy dollar for yet another happy week of marriage to his wife.

Brent Ashcraft was happy about an upcoming trip to NYC to visit his daughter, Amy.

Happy Dollars continued ...

Jim DeYoung was thankful for MaryAnn joining him for lunch and VERY happy for their 56th anniversary.

Frankie Qualls was $5 happy to attend his first Rotary meeting.

Rick Melton was $2 happy to have seen someone whom I can't remember the person's name.

Phil Johnson was happy for his 10th anniversary with Sandra and happy for his birthday.

Shon Myers was happy to pick up his daughter on her return from an eventful weeklong mission trip.

Al Scott gave a CROP dollar for Dr. Jen who helped Karen Euse with obtaining assistance with her hip issues.

Bob Kilpatrick was happy/sad that Carolyn was leaving again for another week-long trip.

Ron Smith was happy to have made it home from a NYC trip. The return trip included sitting on the tarmac for two hours then circling Atlanta endlessly before rerouting to Chattanooga. Then driving home from there. Whew

Celebrations!
