Rotary Trivia – for the time being

Q: In what country was the first Rotary Club outside of the United States?

A: The first non-USA Rotary Club was in Winnipeg, Canada, in 1912.

Program

Miamisburg Rotarian
Mandy Askins – Director
MOUND COLD WAR
DISCOVERY CENTER

Mandy’s presentation focused on Dayton History’s Carillon Park facilities 65-acre open-air history museum. The park continues to develop new structures while maintaining the historically significant pieces they have acquired over several decades.

She included a broad overview of the organization’s past, present, and future properties owned and operated by Dayton History.

Check the website for operating hours and take advantage of these magnificent resources at minimal cost to visitors.

Vanessa Glotfelter -- $11 happy for her 11th anniversary. Congrats!

Jane Schneider -- $1 happy that she still has what it takes to catch the eye and get honked at by a truck driver.

Eric Flasher was $3 happy to have his backyard pond project completed. He was being a bit coy.

Barry Barnhart was happy for all of the people on mute but I can't remember why?
