

Rotary 04-02-2018

- In attendance were Hank, Irv, Joan, Arlene, Wayne, Ed and Terry
- The meeting was opened by Ed. The pledge was led by Ed with Joan giving the inspiration.
- Discussed the district and Black Tie Blue Jeans grants and discovered both deadlines were missed.
- The club members then went over a list of projects and accomplishments that Ed had compiled to select three to turn into District Governor Joe McBride.
- The club voted to buy one duck for the district conference duck race fund raiser.
- Arlene, Ed, Irv, and Wayne will attend the district conference at Fairmont Hot Springs the 27th and 28th of April.
- The Rotary International Convention in Toronto was discussed. No one is going from our club. Ps – I checked out of curiosity and there are no available rooms in Toronto. There is another big event being hosted in Toronto that same weekend
- The price of a meal was discussed, and all agreed to raise to the cost by one dollar bringing it to five dollars.
- The wheel was spun by Marlene and won by Wayne
