- Ed led the Pledge followed by Joan with the inspiration, The fellowship for the meeting was a moment of silence that caught everyone off guard for a minute or two.
- Calendar update - There are two list that have not been turned in.
- Scholarship apps have been turned into school
- School awards - Ed showed a letter for students with a 4 way test coin, A&W gift certificates and we still need the theater tickets
- We need a food chair for the 22nd - Hank will do dinner and Arlene will do a presentation on Whitehall during WW1
- A new schedule for review was presented with 2 meetings per month
- The international dinner was discussed - Ed will be gone during the traditional time frame - It was decided to tentatively schedule it after Millie returns from the warmth of the south so she can participate as she has been gone when we have had it in the past - the theme will be Americana (Melting Pot) as America is built from the diversity of the world as will represent the world with an American twist to the foods - Vic to get in touch with the community center to reserve and time slot for us
- The wheel chair situation was discussed and Joan will talk to the recipient
- The wheel was spun by Paul with the house being the winner
- The meeting was then adjourned.
