

Meeting January 29th

Called to order by Ed Handl acting president

The Pledge of allegiance was led by Hank and the inspiration was given by Karen

In attendance were Wayne, Irv, Hank, Vic, Arlene, Joan, Judy, Ed, Terry and Karen

Dinner was Terry

This was a business meeting

Ed mentioned that next week the 5th of February is Governor Joe McBrides visit.

The internationally inspired dinner was discussed with the dinner being held Sunday the 29th of July at the Whitehall Community Center. It was decided that those not bringing a dish can voluntarily contribute a non-specified amount.

Wayne will be attending PETS this year but will be driving. It was decided to pay him for gas up to the cost of the air fare of $372.00

We also discussed a request by the Jefferson Valley Sportsman Association (JVSA) for a request of funding to help with the kids Piedmont fishing pond. Hank will gather more information from the JVSA and present that information at a future meeting.

Judy noted that there are 4 calendars left for distribution. She also noted that this year went quite a bit smoother than last year.

Also discussed was the possibility of putting in for a Rotary Citation as Ed said we are close to meeting the qualification and thought that with a little work we could be there pretty easily

The Wheel was spun with the house being the winner

The meeting was adjourned.

Terry