CLASSIFICATION

Under what classification is applicant being proposed? _____

EXPECTATIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

1. Attend a new member orientation meeting held the first quarter following your admittance.
2. Your sponsor will be your mentor to help you learn about our Club and answer any questions you may have.
3. Rotary has strict attendance policies for members to attend 50% of the weekly meetings. (Make-up meetings may be done at any Rotary Club in the world.)
4. It is the duty and obligation of a Rotarian to volunteer his/her services in connection with Rotary projects and programs in addition to attending weekly meetings.
5. You are expected to participate in the Club's annual fundraisers, and serve on one ore more of the Club's committees.
6. You are responsible for quarterly monthly dues which include the Rotarian Magazine, International, District and Club Dues. If you do not attend a meeting you will be charged for the meal, however, if you make-up the absence at another Club, you will receive a meal credit.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

From the earliest days of the organization, Rotarians were concerned with promoting ethical standards in their professional lives. Of all the things we say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

STATEMENT BY PROPOSED MEMBER

I hereby certify that I am qualified for membership. If selected, it will be my duty to exemplify the object of Rotary in all my daily contacts and activities and to abide by the constitutional documents of Rotary International and the Club. I have been informed of the Club's strict attendance and service policies, and agree to comply. I understand that Rotary is an international service organization and that becoming a Rotarian implies my desire to take part in the various club service activities, committees and projects to the best of my ability. I agree to keep my dues current in accordance with the bylaws of the Club. I hereby give permission to the Club to publish my name and proposed classification to its membership.
