John Noling	Annette Smedley

Business:

1.) Lunch Meeting Update

- a. Speaker was from the Salvation Army.
 - i. Will have a counselor in Muskegon for opiate issues, etc., a therapist and an additional person.
 - ii. Addiction doctor still in Grand Rapids for those that need to visit once a month for medication dispersal.
- b. Statistically, we are the worst county in the state for opiod users and 8th in the country.
 - i. 52 deaths in 2014 with 1 in 8 users being admitted for treatment.
 - ii. There is at least 1 overdose in Muskegon county each day (though not each OD is fatal.)

2.) Reports

- a. Chili Cook-off
 - i. Asaline Scott donated $25 to go toward the cost of materials, or whatever the sub-committee deems necessary.
 - ii. An anonymous donor graciously donated $100 to the Chili cook-off.
 - iii. Chili Cook-off flyer has been attached to the second page.
 - iv. Getting a line item in the budget for the chili cook-off was discussed.
 - v. Received hot dogs from the Meat Block.

- vi. Salad, corn bread, chili, and hot dogs have been confirmed to be donated from the Holiday Inn (they have committed to 12 quarts of chili!)
- vii. Silent Auction donations have been confirmed from Susan & Orville as well as Grand Valley State University. (Thanks!)

3.) Save-the-Dates

- a. Chili Cook-off February 8th
- b. District Conference May 17-19th
- c. International Convention June 22-27th
- d. Grape Escape (date to come)
- e. Party in the Park (date to come)
- f. Irish Fest (date to come)

4.) Other news/Announcements

- a. Orville has suggested that we take a look at things the Noon Meeting does and come up with our own version of some of these things to make our meetings more exciting. The things discussed/mentioned were as follows:
 - i. Happy dollars
 - ii. 10 Brave Rotarians
 - iii. Birthdays (January 15th is Susan Crain's-we sang to her at the meeting since she will be out of town next week.)
 - iv. Every Rotarian, Every Year
 - v. Fines
 - vi. 50/50 raffle
- b. Adopting a lot was mentioned for something our club could do once a month on Saturday mornings, or in lieu of a Thursday night meeting once a month.

Meeting adjourned at 6:00 P.M.
