

ReWine Meeting Minutes-8/10/2017

Meeting brought to order at 5:15 PM

Attendees:

Papa N'jai	Asaline Scott
Kevin Ricco	Susan Crain
Ken Johnson	Kaytie Ely
Grace Goskowicz	John Noling
Orville Crain	Esther Ricco
Braxton Gerdes

Business:

1.) Noon Meeting Update

- a. Muskegon Made (MAISD initiative) aims to assist children in grades 4-12 with career planning that will help students realize what their options and interests are career wise.
- b. There was a nice fact sheet provided at the meeting and the program is expected to kick off this fall.
- c. Data will be gathered to discern how students feel at different levels of education.
- d. We would like Kyle (from the Career Tech Center) to join the ReWine club at a meeting and give the Muskegon Made presentation.

2.) Grape Escape Update

- a. Grape Escape will be October 4, 2017 from 6-9 PM at the Frauenthal. Volunteers are still needed.

3.) Party in the Park

- a. Unfortunately this event was a bust, but Rotary was complemented on their organization skills while trying to pull off the event.

4.) Rotary Youth Exchange

- a. Joni Smith and Jackie Fisher are going to co-chair Rotary Youth Exchange. A student is coming from Sardinia and we would like to invite her to a ReWine meeting to present about her culture.

5.) Bridge Project

- a. The work bee is scheduled for Thursday, August 17th from 5-8 pm.
Bring yourself, gloves, and clothes to paint in. Grinders and sand blasters are needed; work will be done behind the Rite Aid in Whitehall.

6.) Chili Cook-off

- a. The date chosen for the 2nd Chili Cook-off was Thursday, February 8th.
- b. Due to the success of the event we are searching for a new location to host the event. The Frauenthal was mentioned as a possible option.
- c. Members of the ReWine Club volunteered to form a sub-committee to plan the chili cook-off. Members are as follows:
 - John Noling
 - Esther Ricco
 - Papa N'jai
 - Kaytie Ely
- d. It was also brought up that there should be 1 member from the lunch meeting to sit on the sub-committee as well as a representative from each Interact/Rotaract Club that the Muskegon Rotary supports.
- e. Members from the ReWine Club wished that it be written that money from the chili cook-off shall now and forevermore be split between supply costs for trips to El Salvador and Honduras.

Meeting adjourned at 6:15 PM
