Is it the truth? Is it fair to all concerned? Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

From Hackley Library Volunteer Facilitator Needed!

Girls Who Code, a national nonprofit dedicated to making the playing field even for girls in math and technology, has named Hackley Library an official site for January through May. Girls Who Code provides a weekly project for an after school club for middle and high school girls.

We're looking for a volunteer who can lead some of the club meetings, somebody who is passionate about helping girls and who wants to close the gender gap in technology. She / he should be at least open to technology and math, but doesn't have to be a tech wizard or math or computer science major, just curious and open. The projects are designed so anyone can facilitate a club. We anticipate 5 or so girls. It sounds like fun -- interested and motivated kids, no lesson planning, limited time span, no grading, shared responsibility with another leader who has already volunteered, and library staff support.

If you're interested in this cool new project, call Marty Ferriby, 722-8003, and we'll talk. The nearest alternate sites are in Grand Rapids and Grant, places pretty much out of reach for Muskegon area girls.

Words & Inspiration

The legendary recruiter for Rotary invocators and reflectionists, Rabbi

Alan Alpert, left, has already filled his 1st Quarter 2018 quota. Alan expressed many thanks to the willing volunteers:

Last Week's Program

Report from Atlanta: 2017 Rotary International Conference

Speakers, in order: Brianna Scott, Cathy Brubaker-Clarke, Jim Fisher, Don Crandall, Linda Juarez, and Nancy Crandall

by RIM Reporter Jamie Hekker

In June, a delegation of 16 Rotarians from Muskegon attended the Rotary International Conference in Atlanta, GA. Why should you join your fellow Rotarians at the next International Conference? To meet 60,000 people from all over the world! To explore a world class city and its attractions! And to get a great swag bag!

Atlanta and Georgia Rotary clubs rolled out the red carpet, sponsoring various downtown areas and offering host city events including an evening at the World of Coca-Cola, tour of the Mercedes-Benz Stadium, Delta Flight Museum, College Football Hall of Fame, and more. Held at the World Congress Center in downtown Atlanta, one of the most memorable parts of the events was simply being around thousands of people from over 175 countries and speaking other languages. While events such as the House of Friendship offered a more formal place for attendees to connect, often you could meet interesting people while in line for a session.

The general conference sessions featured an overview of everything Rotary. The keynotes featured world-class speakers and the breakouts allowed our attendees to learn how other Rotary clubs in the world work to achieve the Rotary mission.

A part of the conference was the End Polio Now - Global Polio Eradication Initiative session. Bill Gates gave a keynote speech and Jack Nicklaus and John Cena spoke as Polio Ambassadors. Global eradication of polio is within sight. With only 16 cases in 2017 (to date) in 3 countries, and $1.2 billion pledge by world leaders in Atlanta, polio truly will be a thing of the past across the globe.

As another Rotary International signature project, the efforts towards clean water for world were also highlighted. Rotary is working in all areas of the world and utilizing many different technologies to ensure clean water and sanitation so citizens can have healthier and more successful lives. Because of Rotary's efforts, 23 million people have clean water and there is a target of 2030 for Rotary to complete its work in providing everyone safe water, sanitation and hygiene. The website wasrag.org has more information if you're interested.

We are lucky to be able to hear the youth impressions from the conference, from Linda Juarez's daughter Tanya. Special guest speaker Ashton Kutcher, left, brought to light the global issue of sex trafficking. His star power appealed to the youngest members at the conference, but what's more important, his message resonated long after the conference ended. Tanya reports that she's taken what she learned about sex trafficking and is having ongoing discussions with her college classmates about it.

Brianna Scott and family visited the Center and took a deep look into the American civil rights movement and global human rights issues. The Center was interactive, powerful, and provides visitors the opportunity to look dictators in the eye as well as feel what it was like to "sit-in" at a segregated lunch counter. This is a must-see if you're ever in Atlanta.

In closing, after hearing about the great experiences of the crew in Atlanta, it's time to plan for the Rotary International Conference in Toronto, June 23 – 27, 2018. Toronto is a just a few hours away, but it's an experience of a lifetime!

NEWS / ANNOUNCEMENTS – PRESIDENT CATHY

This week, December 14, we will be at the Lake House Water-front Grille. We will be electing our 2018-19 Board of Directors. Nominees are Mark Meyers (President), Orville Crain, Jeff Lewis, Kate Scarbrough, Ginny Sprague, JD Wallace, Sr. and Doug Wood. Nominations from the floor will be accepted. We will elect three new directors.

A new member joined our ranks, Dr Aaron Maibe. Aaron is transferring his membership from the Rotary Club of Owosso where he's been the immediate past president. He has also been a member of the Rotary Club of Allen Park, serving there as a past president. Dr Maibe is relocating to Muskegon to serve as the president of Baker College of Muskegon, and will be joined by his wife Shanna and sons Hunter and Tanner.

BRING 'EM IN THURSDAY

Ed Kaminski, Rotarian from the Montague-Whitehall Club, reports that his club is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year!

NEWS / ANNOUNCEMENTS – COMMITTEE MEMBERS, GUESTS

Orchard View Interact students visited last week (see page 2). Nine of their over 40 members were in attendance and gave us a taste of what they've been up to: Michigan Irish Music Festival, Senior Prom, raising money for Polio-Plus, Youth United Way, and students planning to travel to El Salvador and Honduras. They were presented with their Presidential Citation, above, earned last year during their outstanding first year of operation. Please stop in to a meeting to see the energy first hand on Mondays at 10:30am at OVHS.

We're still basking in the glow of the "Red Boot Way" and Molly Barker from last week's program. Kudos to the Program Committee and Bob Chapla! Muskegon Rotary is exploring becoming part of the "Red Boot Way" – and would be the first affiliate in Michigan.

Please sign up to provide your words of wisdom during our time of invocation and reflection the quarter after this next one (Apr-Jun). See Alan Alpert to sign up or with questions.

The Red Star Committee loves to see the progress our new members are making is getting their stars removed, said Darlene Collet. They are also seeking volunteer mentors for new and transferring Rotarians. Darlene, right, also said something about us poking fun at someone in RIM; as soon as her email announcement arrives in the newsroom, we'll git 'er in.

This week in the "10 Brave Rotarians" quest to help Muskegon be 1 in 21, Marcia Hovey-Wright was eliminated. She had to "kick butts" to set an example for Muskegon to become smoke-free!

News from 1 in 21: The Seaway Run registration is officially open for 2018! The walk/run will be held on Saturday, June 23 and will feature a 10k run this year. For more information and to register, please visit: <https://seawayrun.com/>
