THE FOUR WAY TEST THAT ROTARIANS USE IN MAKING ETHICAL DECISIONS:

Is it the truth? Is it fair to all concerned? Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Appropriately, Run fans, “Downtown Dave” will switch Rotary hats and speak to what's happening in our wonderful downtown. A keen message, it's one we'll all want to share with friends and family. See you at Club? Bring someone with you.

Papa Bear said...

“The Seaway Run is too short.”
Mama Bear said, “No, it's too long.”

Let's Get Together

At the last Social Committee meeting, it was decided to cancel the July 29th picnic at Rotary Park mainly out of budget concerns and working our Rotary Parties in the Park the following week. Other event options discussed were:

- Muskegon Clippers Game*
- Happy Hour at Muskegon Country Club
- Event at the Muskegon Museum of Art
- Bowling night out

*Below is a link to the concept and plan for a Clippers Carload Party:

Please review and provide me with any feedback you believe might assist our committee. Thank you.

Turnovers aren't only for apples and cherries anymore

It's time once again for Rotary's annual turnover of officers, committees, and some things not even invented yet. New (and veteran) Board members are listed twice on this issue's cover page.

Fascinating reading.

The most visible executive change will be the Club presidency. Cathy Brubaker-Clarke has been scaling the Rotary walls of leadership for a few years now, even retiring from her City Hall day job, in order to make the most of next year. Josh Wallace's year in organizational splendor is coming to a victorious conclusion, one worthy of its own statue in Rotary Park... but no, Josh is much too unpretentious for such falderal, not when he'd rather gather friends for support in the Great Cycle Challenge.

"Only 77 miles and $67 left to meet my goals," is his clarion call. Josh is riding to Fight Kids' Cancer! Please sponsor him, join the fight, and help kids beat this terrible disease. CLICK below to view Josh's fundraising page!

Toronto 2018 Host

If you keep this RIM for no other reason, know that the following item is quite historic – it's the very first Cathy Brubaker-Clarke-initiated announcement to appear in RIM since Cathy became Rotary president officially. So, me hearties, let's get on with it. Your attention, please...

"Please consider registering for the 2018 Rotary International Conference, to be held June 23-27, in Toronto, Canada. Additional information is available at www.riconvention.org. In order to reserve a hotel close to the Convention venue, it is best to register early."

UPDATE: Then, Tuesday...

"Whew, I did it! I finished my 500 miles tonight. I started the day with 77 miles left and got them done today due to lots of rain and wind in the forecast. It took more than 30 hours to complete the task. Along the way I was able to raise $3223 for pediatric cancer research. Thanks to all who donated." If you still want to donate there's yet time" - JOSH. #GCCUSA

Mercy Health Seaway Run/Lake Michigan Half Marathon 2017

by Chris Burnaw Cont'd from cover

Thank you to all the Rotarians who ran, walked, or volunteered for this signature event! Now in its 6th year as a Muskegon Rotary Club/Muskegon YMCA owned event, the 37th annual Seaway Run had over 2,800 runners and walkers in our new location in downtown Muskegon.

Runners/walkers started and finished at 4th and Western, with new courses that still took advantage of our beautiful lake views. The 15k and Half Marathon went from downtown out to Lake Michigan and back, with glimpses of Muskegon Lake along the way. The new 5k/Community Walk course, which got rave reviews, took participants up a closed Shoreline Drive, past GVSU's Muskegon Innovation Hub, and through the new Terrace Point Landing development. The Healthy Lifestyle Expo had nearly 40 exhibitors in its new location at the LC Walker Arena, sharing healthy ideas and products with our community.

Rotarians were spotted throughout the event, lending a helping hand or running with friends and family. Jamie Hekker served as volunteer coordinator for the entire event, managing the nearly two hundred volunteers from all over the community needed for a successful event (Baby Hekker came along for the ride – I was very impressed with the energy of our mom-to-be!) Tom Powers and the Crains led a team of Rotarians as they joined Coldwell Banker employees at a 5K/Community Walk Spirit Station, giving water, Gatorade, and cheers to over two thousand runners and walkers. We also had Rotarians helping at packet pick up, at the start/finish line, and out on the course cheering on our runners and making sure they were safe. Rotarian spouses and families also volunteered and ran/walked along with our members. Rotarians also provided sponsorships through their businesses and encouraged their employees to participate.

Thanks again to everyone who showed that the Rotarian Four Way Test is not just words on paper, but a way to help our community thrive!

Rotary Strategic Plan, 2017-2019

by Ammy Seymour

Josh Wallace recapped the Club's Strategic Vision just before relinquishing the presidency at Rotary's year's end.

"The Muskegon Rotary Club engages and empowers principled, enthusiastic, and diverse community members who believe that together we can change our community and our world."

- Vision Statement 2013

"The Muskegon Rotary Club is a thriving and engaged service organization that cultivates relationships among members of all ages harnessing their passions and talents to promote peace, affect significant positive change, and build a sense of place in our community and the world."

- Mission Statement 2013

Rotary Avenues of Service: International, Club, New Generations, Community, and Vocational.

As Josh reflected on his role as Rotary president, he expressed thanks to many Club members, his wife Amber, below, and family.

What he's learned in his leadership position has helped him personally and professionally. "Use the hours, don't count them."

lucky to be part of such a strong, caring group of leaders. As someone at the RI Convention shared, "No group has the talent, know-how and can-do spirit as much as Rotary." Our group exemplifies this. One of the first things I want to say coming into my year, Cathy said, is, "If it's not broke, we don't have to fix it."

Cathy's areas of emphasis: Rotary membership retention and recruitment; host networking events; host community forums; strengthen international projects while partnering with other Rotary clubs in the District; host inbound Youth Exchange Students and sponsor an outbound Youth Exchange Student; participate/partner in project involving a corporate or government partner; involve local media in events/fundraisers; continue RotarActors, InterActors and EarlyActors in Club events; support the new EarlyAct club; Promote International Foundation Giving; Support annual fund drives for Polio Plus and the Food Drive.

Other newly-elected leaders are Kathy Moore, president-elect; and Linda Juarez, president-nominee.

It's a new Rotary year kicked off with purpose and vision.
