REPORT OF MEETING NO. 3888

Chairman Noel Howard opened the meeting with Rotary Grace and the Loyal Toast. The International Toast was to the Rotary Club of Miami Florida recognizing their plight with Hurricane Irma.

President Leo announced the following:

- Birthdays; John Addinsall Sept 13th. Lorraine Wilson Sept 17th.
- Inductions; The anniversary of two past Rotarians who were re-inducted into our club, Bill Blaby who was our 50th and 61st. President and Fred Ryan who returned to Hamilton after a short stint away with his employment.
- Rotarians who have not returned the questionnaire to Leo please do so this week.

REPORTS.

- Foundation. Noel reported that Jenny Clarke will be our guest speaker on 25th. September.
- Public Relations. Kevin reported on the publicity obtained on the following projects: Police Award, Contribution to the WDHS Oncology project and the Document Signing Centre.

- Administration. The Chairman for each Rotary meeting will be responsible to propose the International Toast.
- Treasurer. Glenn outlined the financial contribution to the WDHS Oncology Centre which was sourced from the remaining funds in the Charitable Trust Fund.
- There are a few annual subscriptions outstanding, mainly from Rotarians who are on their extended leave up North.
- Events/ Fundraising. Peter Walscott gave a brief outline of a discussion he had regarding a BBQ project to raise funds for community projects. Further details will be circulated to members during the week and a decision being made at our meeting next Monday.
- A reminder that the 3 Peaks event is on 21st. October at Dunkeld. Please note the date in your diary.
- University of the Third Age. An invitation has been received from U3A that a morning tea is being planned for Seniors' Week, with guest speaker Rev. Peter Cook, an honorary member of our Club.
