President Leo Cummins welcomed everyone.

- He thanked all members for their efforts at the Dunkeld Races.
- Combined Bowls Night this Wednesday $25 per head wear a bright coloured shirt and flat shoes
- Meeting on 27th November was cancelled.

Reports

Noel Howard reported on the Dunkeld Races. Profit of around $2000. Some leftover food donated to the Uniting Church.

Public Relations – Kevin Safe

- Thanked Noel for driving for Skills Centre. Program completed for the year. Next year, a bus may be running from Casterton and return, so we may not have to do any driving.
- Raffle – still 15 books left
- Organizing publicity for the Vitality/WDHS Scholarship presentation, to go in the Spec.

Murray Menzel reported that Jenny Clarke had reported that the solar fridge we donated in Uganda is working well.

Fines conducted by Richard Beks-asked us to recall a favourite movie.

Rose – The Mission

Peter Schroder – Australia

Murray – The Magnificent Seven

Kevin- West Side Story

Bob Penny – Zulu/Where Eagles Dare/Last of the Mohicans

Glenn – The Blues Brothers

Congratulations to all Office-bearers, new and second time around.

We had a great day at the Dunkeld Races, and made a good profit. There was lots to see and the crowd was good, well-behaved and, once again, entertaining! Thank you to everyone who helped at this event.
