President James Dishon welcomed all to the meeting, which is a social evening, especially Sandy Gardner/Vanrenen and Barry Little.

Club Notices:

- Annual Strathdownie joint meeting is to be held on Tuesday March 21.
- WDHS Golf Day is this coming Friday February 24, subject to temperature prediction. Starting time is earlier, due to high temperatures.
- Clean Up Australia day is on Friday March 3, commencing at 10 am. Mulleraterong will be assisting us. A sausage sizzle will follow, with the shire providing sausages and bread.
- Next week Carolyn Coate will be our guest, speaking on second bite in Hamilton.
- Bob Cadden suggested (by email) that the club donate $1000 to the Turkey/Syria earthquake appeal and $1000 to the New Zealand flood appeal – approved by all present.
- Dan Tehan invited the club to apply for a Stronger Community Program grant. Members to confer with the Friends of the Botanic Gardens to see if a joint project might be possible.
- Ken's shed is still a mess. Brian in discussion with Marten Chin.

- Jenni and Gerri have been investigating a potential club shirt. A green short sleeve polo shirt has been recommended, which can be embroidered with the club details locally. Unfortunately, long sleeve shirts are not available in the same colour.
- James updated us on birthdays (Ainsley Wilson Feb 26 and Helen Garfoot Feb 27), induction anniversaries (Lyn Christie Feb 19) and wedding anniversaries (Glenda and Bob Cadden Feb 25).
- Now that we are meeting at the Speckled Frog, less people are needed to assist with meetings –
 - 2 cashiers (1 to sell raffle tickets).
 - 1 bulletin scribe.
 - 1 property person – able to set up computer and projector.

President James reminded members –
