Club Night Wednesday 26th July 2023.

Bulletin Notes compiled by John Main.

President Noel declared the meeting open and welcomed everyone to the meeting.

Rose Howard advised that Roy Bett was in hospital and would be monitored for a few days.

Fay Aarons has been transferred to the Hamilton hospital.

Board meeting issues are,

- Club to purchase accounting program for club accounts,
- 100 Bowel scan kits have been sold,
- Club fees are now due for $240
- 20 Hi vis vests are being purchased
- $500 donated to WDHS for the prostate cancer biopsy machine
- Remember to go to Hip Pocket to choose, order and pay for your Rotary shirt, particularly if you intend to help at Sheepvention.

Heather Ward advised that Paula the Exchange student from Germany will be at the club meeting on 26 July.

Draft 'Avenue of service lists' are now available, if members have any issues or suggestions, please contact Noel or Simon.

President Noel asked Heather Ward to introduce Jenny Hurst and then conducted the Induction of Jenny who has previously been a Rotarian in the Northern Territory.
