President Noel welcomed all present to this the 2024 Annual General Meeting of the club.

NEWS AND NOTES

Daniel Shaw from the Council of the Shire of Southern Grampians addressed the meeting and asked for volunteers to act in the role of Father Christmas in Hamilton in the first three weeks of December.

The task will run between 11.00 am and 2.00 pm, Monday to Friday, for the three weeks. It will be based in The Hub, where it is air conditioned, and all clothing and equipment will be supplied. An assistant will also be on hand to assist with dressing.

The person will be required to venture into the street from promote the spirit of Christmas and will also take part in the St Mary's parade.

The person will be paid, so if a volunteer from the Rotary Club is prepared to take it on, the payment will be a welcome source of additional income for the club.

Any person who is prepared to volunteer is asked to contact Kevin Safe.

President Noel advised that David Burrow is unwell and is in hospital in Geelong. Noel spoke to him recently and is pleased to advise that he appears to be on the mend.

Rose Howard has just had hip surgery and is recovering slowly.

A couple of items from the recent board meeting were raised with members.

- The question of the members' capacity to continue providing the "lamb Bar" at Sheepvention was raised. None of us is getting any younger and the task is quite arduous. The prospect of asking another service club to assist was raised.

The matter was left for members to ponder.

The meeting was advised that a number of budgeted donations had been paid

Volunteers are needed to assist with catering for the Hamilton Golf Day on 15th November. Roster on shared drive.

Concern was raised with the condition of Ken's Shed. It appears the water, possibly from blocked spouting, had entered parts of the building and it is apparent that a working bee will be required to clean up the mess.

James Dishon and Kevin Safe reported on the Highland Gathering held on 26th October. Thank you to all involved.

Kevin Safe also reminded members of the Domestic Violence Walk, to raise awareness about domestic violence and how steps are being taken to combat the problem, will be held on 30th November.
