Founder:

Susan Blumenthal served on the City's Planning Board in the early 1990s, when the City started doing site plan review. She felt strongly that property owners and developers who went the extra mile with new projects and renovations of their properties should receive recognition for their contribution. Blumenthal approached Don Kompf, then president of Ithaca Rotary, when she was on Common Council and he agreed. Thus the Rotary/City partnership was born in 1997, with first awards made in 1998.

Nominations for awards are made by members of the public, the Rotary Club of Ithaca and the Pride of Ownership Committee. All nominated properties lie within the boundaries of the City of Ithaca and are referenced from a public road or street without regard to interior workings. Criteria for the award are the project's contributions to the betterment of the community by its addition to the cityscape. Over the years a wide variety of projects have been recognized. The focus is on honoring owners for having the acumen to decide on a project's constructs.

Committee:

Margaret Hobbie, realtor and historian/ Howard Hanna Real Estate Services and current Chair, Frost Travis, developer, Travis Hyde Properties, Scott Whitham, Whitham Planning & Design; John Barradas, architect; Brett Bossard, Alumni Engagement, Ithaca College; Pauline Morin, Ph.D. architect, Emily Petrina, architect.
