

WASH

15th Annual

SYMPOSIUM

This symposium addresses pressing challenges facing communities around the world such as climate change, population growth, and emergencies and highlights the critical importance of building resilience in water, sanitation, and hygiene (WASH) initiatives.

Saturday, October 19, 2024

7:15 a.m. Exhibits Open
 8:00 a.m. Program Begins
 2:45 p.m. Symposium Ends

Tickets

BREAKFAST + LUNCH INCLUDED IN PERSON

- General Admission-In Person (Early Bird)-$45.00
- General Admission-In Person (after 10/1)-$60.00
- General Admission Virtual-$30.00
- Students-In-person-$15
- Students-Virtual-Free
- International-Virtual-Free (Via Raymond James)
- Exhibitors-$100

Lodging Option

Cambria Hotel, 3601 Brighton Blvd., Denver, 80216
 Phone: (720) 806-7251
 Group number: JM42J2
 Cost: $199/night (until 9/19)

Sponsors

RAYMOND JAMES | INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Lizz Welch
 iDe-International Development Enterprises

Erica Gwynn
 Rotary International
 WASH Area of Focus

William Kamkwamba
The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind
 Moving Windmills

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

RESILIENT Community Engagement and Participation

Susan Burkenholder
 El Porvenir- Nicaragua

Muthi Nhlema
 BASEflow Limited-Malawi

RESILIENT Capacity Building and Training

Samantha Temple
 Colorado School of Mines
 Humanitarian Engineering

Jeremiah Mumo
 Centre of Love Foundation
 Kibera-Kenya

RESILIENT Leadership in WASH

Angela TenBroeck
 Center for Sustainable Agricultural Excellence & Conservation

Rob Miller
 Global Access 2030

RESILIENT & Innovative Technologies in WASH

V. Srinivas Chary
 ASCH-India
 WASH Innovation HUB

Zoe Pacciani
 Freshwater Project International

Event Contact:
 Martha Boon
 720-839-5231
 mboon18@mac.com

MORE EVENT DETAILS

www.d5450washcommittee.com

REGISTER

