Guidelines

What It Is For:

- Fostering Unity: It brings members together to focus on shared values, fellowship, and community service.
- Setting a Tone: It transitions members from their busy secular lives into a space dedicated to the core motto, "Service Above Self".
- Expressing Gratitude: It often gives thanks for food, visitors, and the privilege of working together to help others.

In other words, the invocation really gets the meeting going on the right track and tone.

Common Themes:

- Service Above Self: Expressing commitment to humanitarian work and community betterment.
- Gratitude: Giving thanks for food, friendship, and the opportunity to help others.
- Guidance: Asking for wisdom to act honestly and fairly in professional and personal lives.

Any questions, give me a yell! Patty, 491-5932.
