

The Powelton Club Rules for Clubhouse Guests

1. Proper decorum, conduct and dress are expected from the membership and their guests at all times. The General Manager and staff have been instructed by the Board of Directors to refuse service to any member or guest who conducts himself or herself in an improper, loud or unruly manner. Any member or guest requested to leave the Club premises as a result of his or her conduct or improper attire must leave the premises immediately and will be subject to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors.
2. Proper Attire: Members and their guests are required to wear proper attire at all times.
 - a. Clubhouse and Grounds:
 - i. Unacceptable attire includes: Athletic/jogging shorts – other than tennis shorts and Bermuda shorts (knee length), tank tops, undershirts, bare tops, denim jeans or shorts (unless specified otherwise) and collarless shirts, other than those permitted on the tennis courts.
 - ii. Bathing suits and bare feet are permitted only in the pool and locker rooms.
 - iii. Men must remove hats and visors while in the dining areas and 19th hole. Hat brims must be facing forward at all times.
