- Pres. Doreen-Brief Financial Report: After current expenses Club has operating balance of approx. $2100. Bd. Of Dir. Reviewing allocation of Happy Bucks in the coming weeks. Volunteers needed for Pearl River Day.
- ***Meeting next week 10/12 at Dominican College

Queen Of Hearts: Lightning Strikes –Rag picked for last meeting and lost with Ace of Diamonds, then did it again today with the 3 of Clubs.

Facts or Jokes: Our Town Clerk chose her own Joke and proved that for a $10,000 donation Religious Service for a Dog is no laughing matter.

Happy Bucks: Mike S. started us off with no mike; guest Barry was happy and wise to wed Bonnie; Many happy bucks for Golf Outing ,congrats to Bob Bergman on Paul Harris Award, Ed Reynolds for trip to wine country in Seneca, NY, Ann T. happy for all retirement w ishes. Jim Murphy, back from month long trip gave a history lesson on Slovenia and Serbia and their reaction to Champion Basketball. Sandy was happy for sale of PR home, rental at Jersey Shore, cancel of rental, new home at Shore with invite to all to visit. All members happy for great service Sandy has given to the Club and being recognized as our "Go To Person " ! We will miss you terribly. Love & Best Wishes to you and Mike. Remember you promised to come back periodically.

Program: Again proving some of our best programs come from our own members, Ray Pucci shared his fascinating business experience in presenting Logistics Part II. Ray expanded the history of transport regulation and its impact on the various modes of distribution including trucking, rail, shipping and pipeline with personal anecdotes covering unions, Puerto Rico and the Jones Act as well as the curious height of the Bayonne Bridge. Fascinating to learn the breath of Rays experience and
