Shared by current President Dorothy Filoramo.... There were many shared, among the most important is The Distict Conference is going to be held in

May, information is available through Dorothy. Last Sunday (4.10.16) was Women in Rotary Day. There were roughly 140 attendees and a great time was had by those that attended. Almost $3,000 was raised from the handbag auction for STEP. THE FISHING CONTEST is to be held this Sunday; 4.17.16. In addition, the Hospice Walk-To-remember is also being held on Sunday at Rockland Lake. . Jim Sheppard shared on the success of the Re-gifting Party. Special recognition was given to Lisa, as she represented our PR Club as a winner in the “What Rotary Means to Me” Essay competition. Congrats Lisa!

Program Presenter: Dr. Raj Mehta along with PO's Palazolo & Butterworth

Program: The crowd was treated to a very informative and concerning presentation about the local and international Heroin Epidemic! The room was engaged in discussion around the epidemic and we were introduced to a “Narcan presentation”. The panel was eloquent and articulate in speaking about the exploding Heroin presence in our communities, while remaining very respectful to the many different people affected by Heroin use and addiction!

Four Way Test: Nick Constentino
