Don't forget about RYLA applications.

There will be a board meeting at Noonan's on Monday at 6:30 pm.

>>Program:

Today's guest speaker Robert Tompkins, is a long time Pearl River resident who moved to California and returned home. He became a CPA and a public speaker who is heavily involved with an organization called Toastmasters. He explained that public speaking requires practice, practice, practice and be prepared. Keep people awake by effectively projecting your ideas. Fear is normal amongst public speakers. Many people's biggest fear is speaking in front of others. Toastmasters is an international nonprofit organization with 14,000 clubs in 126 countries with 313,000 members. One effective tool Bob uses for dry mouth is to gently bite your tongue. He suggested that you should also learn your strengths and weaknesses. Nobody in this club has a problem talking in front of people and letting them know how they feel, including this ace bulletin editor.

>

>> Jonathan did the four-way test and President George rang the bell.
