President Carol thanked those members who Came out last Sunday 9/24 to plant flowers in Braunsdorf Park as part of

Our Community Service Project. PDG Jeffrey reported on the Ed Bouton Golf Outing. He said we had sixty five golfers and raised over $20,000 for Our Rotary Scholarship Foundation. The club thanked Jeffrey for a job well done. Past President Bob reported on the student at Evans Park School who the club offered to help with some medical issues. Bob said the young student is doing very well and Kathy White school nurse and the family thanked the club for all their help.

Rotary Challenge: To be continued next week

Queen of Hearts: #957 was picked and Jeffrey Keahon will have the chance to pick the lucky card next week. Dr. Fisher was off for the Jewish Holidays.

Happy Bucks: Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary to those celebrating. Welcome to our guests and visiting Rotarians. Thank you bucks to PDG Jeffrey for a great job on the golf outing and to those who did the flower Planting in the park. Welcome bucks to our Rotaract students. Sad bucks to Steve Panteleakis on the passing of his mother.

Program: Dorothy Filoramo, who is with Dominican College, brought two Of our Rotaract students to speak to us – Aaron Evans, President, & Francesca Zayas.

Both students gave a brief outline of their plans for the year. This would include two midnight runs every two weeks to the Bronx to assist the homeless by working in soup kitchens and providing clothing for those in need. The club has twenty members and meets once a week. Also, Bob Craig, our new member, made a $240 donation to the Rotaract Club which the club thanked him for. President Carol thanked Francesca and Aaron for coming and looks forward to working with them and their club in the coming year.

4-Way Test: Past President Frank Neeson
