*President Bud reminds everyone that attendance is important.
The club is no fun without YOU!*

Our speaker for today was our President-Elect Tim Lynch. Tim spoke about the President Elect Training Seminar he attended recently. He learned that club planning is very important and he intends to use the Presidential Citation requirements as a guide. Tim mentioned that RI President-Elect Ian H.S. Riseley of Victoria, Australia would like to change the public's perception of Rotary. President-Elect Riseley wants to quantify the volunteer hours Rotarians contribute to their communities and service projects in addition to the money contributed for these projects.

L to R: Pres-Elect Tim Lynch, Pres. Bud Weaver

President-Elect Tim would like to achieve a 10% growth in our club membership with an emphasis on new members under age 40. He plans to continue our clubs current community service projects, but is interested in developing new projects as well. Tim would like to investigate using our social media connections to reach younger prospective members. He learned about several new charitable opportunities similar to ShelterBox that we could consider supporting. Tim said we do a lot, but there are many new opportunities out there.

Thank you Tim for sharing your experience at P.E.T.S.!

Members we missed and hope to see next week: Karen Cadorette, Rev. Fred Cartier, Emily Fox, Linda Greenblatt, and Anthony Place. Club attendance 72%

Our traveling Judge.....

Our secretary Judge Jonah Triebwasser spent the week at Cornell Law School teaching young lawyers about trial advocacy. While there, he attended a meeting of the Ithaca Sunrise Rotary Club. In the photograph above are Ithaca President Bob Riter and Judge Jonah Triebwasser.
