Annual Baxter’s Bash Picnic

Baxter’s Bash is a Red Hook Rotary Club tradition that dates back well over 30 years. James Baxter, a Charter Member of Rotary Club of Red Hook, NY, started this tradition. Jimmy Baxter was retired when I joined the Club. He was not able to do as much as he used to, so he put on this picnic every year. Jimmy would arrange and pay for the food, club members would bring side dishes and pay our regular weekly meal price. All meal money went to the Club. My early recollection of Baxter’s Bash was in a pavilion deep in Wilcox Park where no one would disturb us. It pleases me that our Club carries on this tradition and continues to honor one of our Charter Members. Acting Editor Carl Dowden
