Our speaker this morning was Hon. Jonah Triebwasser. Jonah gave an informative power point presentation regarding the recent Rotary International convention in Hamburg, Germany. He spoke about the plenary sessions and breakout sessions. The House of Friendship contains displays from Rotary Clubs, vendors and Rotary projects. Jonah said the House of Friendship in Hamburg took up two very large ballrooms. It was mentioned at the convention that Rotarians donated a total of 45

Million volunteer hours last Rotary year. The Rotary International Convention for 2020 is in Honolulu, Hawaii. Jonah and Ellen are already signed up....will you join them?

Attendance was 65% of membership. Members we missed and hope to see next week: Susan Ezrati, Linda Greenblatt, Karen Mead Cadorette, Susan Simon, Gale Wolfe and David Wright. Welcome back to Fred Cartier! Happy dollars= $32.00

Ellen Triebwasser, wife of Hon. Jonah Triebwasser was our guest today. Ellen is not a Rotarian, yet, but she spoke about how much fun it is to attend these Rotary International Conventions as a spouse. She highly recommends Rotarians and their spouses attend an RI Convention.

Jen Van Voorhis gave us an update on our Clynk recycling project. Jen volunteered at the Red Hook Methodist Church Food Pantry this past weekend. She brought them 10 pieces each of 10 personal care products from our Clynk project. Jen said all of it was gone in 30 minutes.
