Our speaker for today was our own Rev. Michael Shafer. Michael asked us “What do you do with the Holidays? And warned, Don’t let the Holidays do you!” He delivered an inspiring message that the holidays are for everyone and we should enjoy the holidays, all of them. Not only is there Christmas there is Hanukkah and Kwanzaa as well. We need to love everyone and know that this is a season of caring.

Members we missed and look forward to seeing next week:
Karen Mead-Cadorette, Emily Fox, Rob Latimer, Theresa Reed, Hon. Jonah Triebwasser, and Gale Wolfe.

Attendance: 71% Happy dollars: $38.00; 50/50: Rev. Fred Cartier

A little shout out and cheer to Connor Latimer, son of Rob Latimer, and the rest of SUNY Brockport Golden Eagles football team. The team is 13-0. They will be in Texas this Saturday, December 9 to take on #1 University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. Good luck and hit ‘em hard Connor!

Our Interact Students have raised another $1,000 for ShelterBox, and the school year is only half over... great job! To date they have raised $6,000 over six years!

PDG Louis Turpin will attend their meeting on Monday, December 11 to receive the check. He will speak to them about ShelterBox and his experience as a response team member in Texas and Florida during the hurricanes.

Remember to write down your volunteer hours and turn them into Theresa Reed!
