Speaker host Barry Ramage introduced Susan Diamond, MSW an agent with New York Life Insurance Company. Susan spoke to us about philanthropy and charitable giving. Many people do not think of themselves as philanthropists because they equate philanthropy with multi-millionaires. You don't have to be Bill Gates or Warren Buffet to be a philanthropist. Actually, as Rotarians we are all philanthropists. Our motto, Service above Self, our desire to help others are reasons we are philanthropists. Charitable giving is the act of giving your time and money to help others.

Members we missed and look forward to seeing next week: Susan Ezrati, Rob Latimer, Karen Mead-Cadorete, Theresa Reed, Rev. Michael Shafer, Hon. Jonah Triebwasser, and Gale Wolfe.

Attendance: 65% - Happy dollars $40; 50/50 Dave Wright who will give it to Mercedes. Thank you Dave!

Next Club meeting - Tuesday, February 27, 2018 at Murray's, 73 Broadway, Tivoli, NY. Our exchange student, Mercedes will make a presentation about Spain. Greeter: Rebecca Kent; Sgt. At Arms: Linda Greenblatt

Greeter and Sgt. at Arms are responsible for setting up before and putting away our paraphernalia.

Our exchange student, Mercedes, from Spain has moved to her next host family and is doing fine. We need another host family for the last leg of Mercedes' time with us. So, if you know of any possible host families, please contact Chris Chale at yexchale@rodenhausenchale.com
