The February 25, 2020 meeting was a regular meeting and a board meeting. The president, Rob Latimer, opened the meeting with the pledge of allegiance, the Rotary 4-way test and Fred Cartier offered a blessing. Eleven Rotarians were in attendance. We missed Linda (aw ay), Rebecca Kent and Jonah Triebwasser as well as Karen Mead Cadorette, Gale Wolfe and our frequent visitor from the Kingston club, Gwen McCann.

Dave reminded us that Apple Blossom is not far away (May 9) and sponsors are needed. Please circulate the sponsor request form to businesses that you believe might sponsor the event. Chris notified us that the YEX group from our region will be making their trip to NYC on March 7. She needs a second Rotarian on the trip (Susan Ezrati has agreed to go). They will also gather for dinner on Friday and at Chris's for brunch on Sunday. We were notified that Theresa Reid (a former Rotarian) is at Albany Med following a terrible accident.

Tim updated us on grants that were applied for earlier (being received on March 15) and the new grant deadline for May 15, 2020. Barry inquired about the budget for planting trees. Tim will follow up with the draft budget. Dave Wright reminded us that we need to respond to the Red Hook Library's request for $1200 to double this year's budget for digital books. And Jen provided a copy of the Library's thank you letter for our donation of $50 to purchase emergency feminine hygiene products. The $50 contribution came from the Clynk program.

Chris Chale introduced Duda, our exchange student from Brazil. Duda is moving to her third family in Red Hook this week. She gave a wonderful presentation on her country including a regional survey of Brazil's five major regions – the North Amazon basin (home of 20% of the world's biodiversity), the NorthEast, Central West (Brasilia), the Southeast (Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro and Graza) and the South (Iquazu Falls). And she detailed her favorite Brazilian foods, including black beans, fried bread, churrasco (BBQ). Her favorite sports (soccer) and her favorite festival, Carnival. Lots of questions followed.

Next week's speaker host is Rebeeca Kent. The speaker is to be announced. The following week is a club business and board meeting.

Happy $ collections totaled. $28.

The upcoming speaker hosts are listed below on the calendar. Substitutions are welcome.
