Rob Latimer, the club's 2019-20 President, started the meeting at 7:55 am. He read a thank you note from Sophia Meritt, this year's co-President of the Interact, for sending her to Rotary Youth Leadership Academy – RYLA – this summer. And Rob asked Carl Dowden, the Interact Club sponsor, to introduce our two guests: Sophia Meritt and Angel Seleins. Sofia told us that she would be a Rec Park counselor this summer, and that she would continue playing volley ball, studying French and Environmental sciences next year. Angel will be manning the blueberry stand at the Grieg Farm for the summer and serving as an officer of Interact next year.

Rob reported on our receipt of the $800 District matching grant for our backpack program, noting that the district had also rebated us an additional $290. On a reminder from Fred Cartier, the club voted to donate $200 to the fundraiser for the 100th anniversary celebration of the Tivoli and Red Hook Fire Companies that will take place at the Red Hook Fire House in August.

Barry, then announced the results of the election for Rotarian of the Year – 2018-19. Jen Van Voorhis was unanimously acclaimed by the club for the honor and will be properly celebrated at the Baxter Bash picnic on August 27, 2019 at the Red Hook Rec Park.

The club was reminded that July 30 is a Fifth Tuesday event that will take place at Cancun's at 5:30. As Happy $ were collected the club was reminded that Tim Lynch is our new treasurer. Total Happy dollars = $34.

Next Club meeting - Tuesday, July 23, 2018 at Cancun's in Red Hook, NY.
Linda Greenblatt will be the speaker host.
