Our meeting today was a club business meeting. Linda Greenblatt reported that Saturday's "Stuff the Ambulance" food collection at Tops Market in Rhinebeck was very successful. Two ambulettes and one car were filled with non-perishable food items. In addition, $500 in donations was received. The money was converted to Tops gift cards and additional food was purchased. Red Hook Harvest, who organize the backpack program in school, received the food.

Linda mentioned that she and Chris Chale attended Bard College Center for Civic Engagement's State Department dinner on Saturday. There are 17 individuals from around the world at Bard for 6 weeks to learn about American Government.

President-elect Tim Lynch told us our last day at Black Star Social will be Tuesday, July 18. Susan Ezrati had contacted Murray's Café in Tivoli regarding our Club holding meetings there. Murray's will offer an abbreviation of their regular menu for our members to choose breakfast. Each member will pay for the items they choose plus 20%. The 20% will cover the server and the fee to use their private room. Tim made a motion the Club move to Murray's starting on July 25 with Club members purchasing their own breakfast plus the 20% as outlined above. David Wright seconded the motion. Passed by vote of Club members present.

Having decided on our new meeting location, Tim presented a budget with three options for dues. Barry Ramage made a motion to adopt the budget with option C which sets the dues at $100 per quarter. Seconded by David Wright, passed by a vote of members present.

Susan Ezrati will contact Murray's to ask if they have a small storage area to keep our Club paraphernalia.

Susan Simon presented President Bud Weaver with a scarf with an antique Roadster on it. Susan purchased it from the Antique and Historic Car Fellowship when she was wondering around the Hall of Friendship at the recent Rotary International Convention in Atlanta.

Susan spoke briefly about the breakout session where she was a panelist. The breakout session was “Welcoming the LBGTQ Community into the Family of Rotary”. Susan felt honored to be asked to participate on this panel. She said the room was filled beyond capacity and they left the doors open so Rotarians outside the room could hear the discussion.
